

Patricia Pérez Gómez

UX Researcher & UI Product Designer

I have a degree in Graphic Design. I have completed a Postgraduate Degree in Advertising and a Master in Design and Management of Web Projects at ELISAVA. I have almost 10 years of work experience and have worked in the pharmaceutical, academic, technological, ecommerce and creative sectors.

I am dedicated to the end to end process of any web project, from understanding user behavior to creating wireframes, defining user interaction and designing user interface.
